

The earliest Indian paintings were painted onto rock walls in caves. The Bhimbetka rock shelters have cave paintings that are approximately 30,000 years old.

Miniature paintings

Indian miniature paintings are small paintings that are used for books and albums. They were often painted on cloth or paper.

Mural paintings

Indian mural paintings are large-scale wall paintings. They take a long time to complete. This wall painting (not to scale) was painted on the wall of an Indian temple.
