

What can we learn about Muslim worship by looking at a Mosque?

The Blue Mosque in Istanbul

Have you found out more about the 5 Pillars of Islam and answered the questions called RE5 Pillar Questions? If you have not, please complete that piece of learning.

What links can you make between these 5 basic duties and obligations that all Muslims have, and the obligations and beliefs of Christians? For example, how could the Shahada, which is the statement of faith, could be compared with the Christian Creed that we have just been looking at.

Send your answers to me in an email on Purple Mash, or post a photo of your learning on your Purple Mash RE Blog. Have a look at what your friends have posted too.

If you have completed that task then move on finding out what a Mosque can tell you about how Muslim's worship.

Go through the PPT, watch the video, and make an information page to explain each of the different features of a Mosque eg. Minaret, Mihrab, dome. Use this interactive Mosque on the BBC website to help you. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/inside-the-mosque-what-do-you-need-to-know/zr3f2sg#:~:text=The%20simplest%20mosque%20would%20be,feature%20has%20its%20own%20significance.>
