

Dear Diary,

The best day in the holidays was when we went to the woods. The path there was very muddy and slippery which was fun. It was a cold day so the spider webs were icy and they looked very pretty. I had a race with my brother to see who could run the fastest to the bridge over the stream. Then we dropped little sticks in the water and my stick was first under the bridge. When we got home we had hot chocolate with marshmallows on. I loved it.
