

Planning Sheet for writing a narrative based on the Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Your character has had an argument with a friend/sister/brother. Name (not a name you know). They storm off and find themselves in another world.

How do they get there?

What is it like?

Who do they meet?

What happens when they do?

How do they get back?

Tell the character they argued with at the beginning; how does that person react?
