

Conjunctions

A

Circle the conjunction in each sentence.

Harry blew the flute while the dog slept.

Ron gritted his teeth and he stepped carefully over the dog's legs.

While Hermione played, Harry looked down through the trapdoor.

Then Harry lowered himself through the hole until he was hanging on by his fingertips.

Because it was so dark, Harry did not know how far the drop was.

He had to get the stone wherever it was hidden.

B

Insert the best conjunction in each sentence.

*Harry let go _____ he fell. because/so/since

*Cold, damp air rushed past him _____ he fell down. as/until/before *_____ he landed with a thump, Harry felt something soft. until/while/when

*He sat up slowly _____ he had landed. where/before/although

*Ron followed _____ he knew Harry was safe. before/after/until

*They knew Hermione was coming _____ the music stopped. because/since/as

Prepositions

A

Circle the prepositions in each sentence.

Harry blew the flute in time.

Ron gritted his teeth and he stepped carefully over the dog's legs.

While Hermione played, Harry looked through the trapdoor.

Then Harry lowered himself until he was hanging by his fingertips.

Under his feet, Harry could not see anything.

Because of Snape, he had to get the stone.

B

Insert the best preposition in each sentence.

_____ the darkness, Harry fell. behind/into/up

He landed with a thump _____ something soft. on/above/behind

He was glad to land safely _____ falling so far. until/before/after

_____ Harry, Ron followed. before/after/until

They realised the danger _____ Hermione. from/for/because of

Hermione struggled _____ a damp wall. due to/towards/until

Adverbs

A

Circle the adverbs in each sentence.

Harry blew the flute there.

Ron gritted his teeth hard and he stepped carefully over the dog's legs.

Then, Harry looked through the trapdoor.

Next, Harry lowered himself until he was hanging by his fingertips.

Inside, Harry could not see anything.

He dropped fast onto a wriggly plant.

B

Insert the best preposition in each sentence.

Into the darkness, Harry fell _____ carefully/rapidly/best

He landed _____ with a thump on something soft. then/earlier/daily

He was glad to be unhurt after landing _____. best/fast/hard

_____ Ron arrived. first/now/soon

Hermione recognised the plant _____. there/nearby/around

She looked _____. back/around/everywhere